“Not only scholarly but also extremely readable. Professor Alexander takes us on a journey from the “anything goes” ethical culture of the USA in which he was raised to the “nothing goes except this” culture of fundamentalist religion found in some segments of his adopted Israel and elsewhere. He takes us with him on his search for a middle path, grounded in his religious culture, while being as open to difference as the most liberal thinkers. Although this is an intellectual search, coined “intelligent spirituality”, it is far from merely cerebral. It is a search that celebrates the richness of the human mind, ever poised between intellect, emotion, sociality, morality and spirituality.”

– Terence J. Lovat, Professor Emeritus, The University of Newcastle, Australia and Senior Research Fellow, University of Oxford, UK

This challenging and provocative book reimagines the justification, substance, process, and study of education in open, pluralistic, liberal democratic societies.

Hanan Alexander argues that educators need to enable students to embark on a quest for intelligent spirituality, while paying heed to a pedagogy of difference. Through close analysis of the work of such thinkers as Michael Oakeshott, John Gray, Paulo Freire and Terence McLaughlin, Reimagining Liberal Education offers an account of school curriculum and moral and religious instruction that throws new light on the possibilities of a nuanced, rounded education for citizenship.

Divided into three parts – Transcendental Pragmatism in Educational Research, Pedagogy of Difference and the Other Face of Liberalism, and Intelligent Spirituality in the Curriculum, this is a thrilling work of philosophy that builds upon the author’s award-winning text Reclaiming Goodness: Education and the Spiritual Quest.

Hanan Alexander is Professor of Philosophy of Education at the University of Haifa, Israel. He has been Visiting Professor and Visiting Fellow at the University of Cambridge and the University of California, Berkeley and his books include Reclaiming Goodness: Education and the Spiritual Quest, which won the National Jewish Book Award in 2001.
